Issued No. 1221, dated the 5th February, 1929.

D.O.letter , dated the 3rd February, 1930, from Mr.E.G. McAlpine, Inspector of Schools, Coorg and Bangalore.

Formal sanction is asked for for the Inspector of Schools to avail himself of such honoraria or fees as accrue to him for work done in connection with the following examinations:-

i. The Trinity College of Music
ii. The Associated Board of Music
iii. The Cambridge examinations
iv. The European School Examinations in Bangalore.

Please see Fundamental Rules 46 and 47 and Supplementary Rules 9 to 14. Permission under Supplementary Rule 12 may be granted to undertake work in connection with the above mentioned examinations. But in view of Supplementary Rule 10 and the Audit Instruction under Fundamental Rule 46 it seems that the Inspector of Schools should obtain sanction for accepting remuneration in each case as it arises.

Perhaps the Pay and Accounts Officer's opinion may be obtained U.O.

Para 12 ante.

Please see rules 15, 17, 18 &19 of the Government Servants' Conduct Rules.

The articles contributed by Mr. Edmonds to the magazine "Teaching" seem to come under the second para of rule 15 and, as such, no previous permission to undertake such work appears necessary. But permission to accept remuneration for such work seems necessary under F.R. 46.

Para 13 ante.

A copy of draft II ~~may or may~~ need not be sent to the Pay and Accounts Officer and the Audit Officer. But when sanction is given ~~for~~ to Mr. Edmonds to accept a remuneration for the text book, for which he should apply in due course when the amount of remuneration is definitely known, the sanction should be communicated to the Pay and Accounts Officer and the Audit Officer.

P. V. Krishnaswamy
25-11-30

28/11 .30
29-11.

Since the magazine article is covered by a rule and occasional contribution to the Press. I do not think it requires sanction. Then added to draft. If agreed, issue draft.
1.12.30

It is true that no sanction is necessary to Mr. Edmonds to write articles to the Magazine "Teaching" in view of rule 15 of the Government Servants' Conduct Rules. But such contribution to the magazine does not come under Fundamental Rule 48(a). Sanction is therefore necessary under Fundamental Rule 46 to accept any remuneration that may may be given to him for such contribution.

Therefore, para 3 of draft II does not appear to be correct. Submitted for orders as to whether draft I and draft II(without para 3.) may issue.

I do not see that this is necessary 6.2.31

Dear Evans-Gordon

Messrs. Longmans Green & Co., have asked me to revise and enlarge a book I wrote for them some years back, and they offer me a fee of Rs. 300-0-0 for the work. I shall have no more interest in the book when revised than I have at present: the copyright will belong to the firm.

Will you kindly obtain the sanction of the Hon'ble the Resident, under rule ø 46 of the Fundamental Rules, to my undertaking the work , which will not interfere with my legitimate duties and to receiving the remuneration the firm offers?

Yours sincerely
